

1. Mose 1,1 besagt laut Elberfelder Bibelübersetzung (R. Brockhaus Verlag 1985):

„Am Anfang schuf Gott die Himmel und die Erde.“

Jamie Owens Collins drückt Ihre Dankbarkeit und Ihre Gefühle gegenüber dem Schöpfer in Ihrem Lied „The wonder of Your grace“ so aus:

All ceation echoes Your praise
Reflecting Your nature, revealing Your ways
In the stars you display Your splendor
Your awesome power in the mighty sea
Holy angels declare Your glory and majesty

But of the endless wonders You've shown
One is made in the image most like Your own
From Your heart of love and mercy
You created Adam's race
And through us You show the wonder of Your grace

And all creation stands amazed
At Your love for this fallen race
Children weak and lame
Yet You call us by Your name
And we sing of the wonder of Your grace
And the host surrounding Your throne
Watch in awe as You welcome Your own
Children old and young
Every nation, every tongue
And we sing of the wonder of Your grace
